Re: Justin Holtzman

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Justin Holtzman. Mr. Holtzman performed a wide range of marketing tasks under my supervision while I served as Vice President of Marketing and Sales at Core Software Technology.

While at Core Software, Mr. Holtzman developed, managed, and adhered to very detail-oriented budgets for the roll out of our data management software. With minimal supervision, his projects were consistently delivered within the required schedule and cost limitations. Once the product was launched, he subsequently executed an integrated marketing and communications campaign that consisted of advertising, trade shows, direct mail initiatives, product literature development, and media relations.

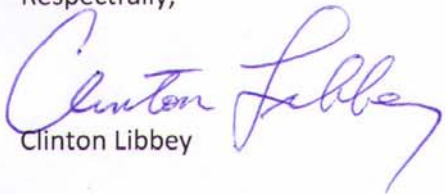

While performing his tasks, Mr. Holtzman often spoke with the media and presented at national trade shows. His efforts paid off significantly both in sales and media coverage. Our media contact list grew significantly resulting in unprecedented editorial coverage and a corresponding dramatic increase in sales.

Mr. Holtzman was adept at understanding very technical concepts and successfully communicated them to non-technical people. As a result, Core's marketing message was effectively disseminated to the marketplace rapidly increasing product awareness and brand recognition.

I am happy to provide Mr. Holtzman a work reference. He is a loyal team player, has a good attitude, and takes pride in his work. In addition to being a very hard worker he is easy to get along with and a pleasure to be around.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Respectfully,

Clinton Libbey
